Throughout our lives we learn to make decisions based off our five senses. This is not really how we were made to live although they were given to us for assistance. In Mathew 4:4 it says that we are to live by every word that proceeds out of the mouth of God. While reading this material you will learn different principles of how we should live and to obtain a different vision for your life. Allow the scriptures used throughout this book to change what you see your current situation as and your future to be.
